

1. Historical Landscape

Bagan is an origin of the history of Myanmar. According to the inscription, it is said that the number of the temples and pagodas scattered in the Bagan's plain have exceeded 5000 in the past. The landscape consisting of temples and pagodas with various sizes and styles reveals a fantastic appearance with changing expression in the morning, day and evening. Historical landscape is one of the most attractive and valuable resources in Bagan.

3. Temples & Stupas

Cultural background of the temples and pagodas are diverse some from Pyu era, others from India or from Sri Lanka. Materials are also various not only brickwork, but also plaster finishing or gilded ones. As with the historical landscape, its expressions are different depending on the time, and you can see the aspect of heritage diversity.

4. Village Production

In the background of Bagan's heritage, there are people's activities that support the culture. In the vicinity of the village, there are farmers who perform traditional farming for this dry climate such as sesame and peanuts, craftsmen who produce traditional crafts such as lacquerware and cotton fabrics in villages. The traditional living style based on the area that still continues can be seen in some villages.

4. Village Life & Customs

The production scenery of agriculture that has supported the living of the area is called a "cultural landscape". Agricultural land is spreading in the background of tangible and intangible cultural heritage, creating unique landscapes with temples and pagodas. Landscapes that change with the seasons, such as harvest seasons, are living landscape to be handed over to the future.
